

Leslie Dorosin Biography

Leslie Dorosin is the Co-Executive Director at the Grove Foundation, where she oversees internal operations, with a focus on finance, manages the foundation's Civic Engagement Grantmaking and oversees our Local and Immigration Grantmaking. She has been at the foundation since 2005.

She started her career as an analyst at an equity investment firm and spent the first part of her career at Intel Corporation. Positions at Intel included Group Controller for Worldwide Microprocessor Development, Director of Intel Alliance Program, Intel Capital and Special Assistant to the VP of Human Resources.

Since joining the Foundation, she has served on the Leadership Council for Immigrants Rising and on the Board of Grant Makers Concerned with Immigrants and Refugees, where she remains on the audit committee. Leslie has played a leadership role in the areas of naturalization, Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) and Rapid Response Networks. She also brings extensive experience in evaluation. She has a BA in Economics from UC Berkeley and an MBA from UCLA.

She is also a Managing Director of the Grove Action Fund.